BOTANY & ECOLOGY

Tree Walk & Talk

Spend an early-autumn morning with Egan Davis exploring the Garden's vast collection of trees from around the globe. Learn a little tree ecology, hear interesting stories, and find out what trees are best suited for urban settings, attracting wildlife, or can add seasonal interest to your garden. This class is entirely outdoors - be prepared to walk, rain or shine. Limited to 16 participants.

Sat. Sep 15, 10 am - 12 pm | Member $27 / Non-member $30

Instructor: Egan Davis

Introduction to Bird Watching

Learn how to train your eyes and ears to find, observe, and identify birds during this intro class with VanDusen's long-time birding guide, Jeremy Gordon. He will cover basic guidelines, tips and techniques of bird watching, and best resources to continue birding in Vancouver. Class includes an indoor presentation, and a walk through the Garden to look for some of the 87 species of birds seen here. Dress for the weather, bring binoculars and a field guide if you have them. Class is limited to 18 people.

Tree ID Walks - North America

Further your plant ID skills outside using the North American tree collections at VanDusen. Garden staff Samantha Sivertz will cover identification, ecology, history and cultural significance of different trees. Sam's engaging teaching style weaves stories with the science - learn about researchers, explorers, and folklore, plus medicinal, practical and ceremonial uses. The September session will focus on native broadleaf trees such as Garry oak, maples and more, while the October session will look at conifers of North America. Discover handy tips and tricks to help you remember the trees. Be ready to spend the afternoon walking outside in the Garden, rain or shine. Limited to 16 participants.

New! Broadleaf Trees of North America: Sat. Sep 22, 1:30 - 4 pm

Conifers of North America: Sat. Oct 13, 1:30 - 4 pm

New! Botany Basics for Gardeners

Improve your botany knowledge and gain some introductory tools to better your plant growing and identification skills. Trained botanist Latifa will introduce you to the main evolutionary groups of plants and how they differ, while touching on the basic morphology and anatomy of plants. We'll look at the plant life cycle, stages of growth, and basic plant growth requirements. Class concludes with a walk around the garden putting knowledge into practice.

Botany and Birds Walk on Bowen

Explore the botanical and ornithological diversity on Bowen Island on a gentle walk along forest trails to Killarney Lake, led by VBGA Education Director, Gillian Drake, and volunteer birding guide, Richard Wing. As we look for Sitka spruce, root nodules on alder, and big leaf maples dripping with licorice ferns, mosses and lichen, we'll discuss our local ecosystems, and practice using a dichotomous key to identify native plants. Learn how to enhance your birding experience by training your ear to focus on the sound of birds calling through the forest, as they are often easier to hear than see. Tour will start at the Public Library, 30 m from the ferry dock (no car needed), and will finish in time to board the 1:10 pm ferry back to Horseshoe Bay. Consider making a day of it and visit Bowen's many cafes, shops and galleries within easy walking distance of the ferry. Fee does not include ferry fare.

New! Collecting Colours:

An intro to natural dyes and pigments for textiles

Please note, this series cannot be taken as individual courses.

Natural botanical dyes from your home and garden, Sat. Oct 13, 1:30 - 3:30 pm:

Participants will each make two solar jars with locally foraged plants and garden compostables to dye about two yards of cotton.

Bundle prints and garden impressions, Sat. Oct 27, 1:30 - 3:30 pm: Bring your solar jars from our first session to unveil the many natural colours the group has produced. At this time, you may choose to modify them further. Today we will introduce the process of preparing a dye vat for bundle dyeing and will use fallen leaves to create some beautiful impressions on a fresh piece of cotton.

Mineral Pigments For Fabric painting, Sat. Nov 17, 1:30 - 3:30: For our third and final session, we will get into the nitty-gritty of earth mineral pigments. We will process several minerals into soy-based pigment paints that can be applied directly to either of your previous projects or other fabrics you may bring from home that need rejuvenating. Dana will share the various minerals she's collected along the West Coast and teach tips for identifying rocks that lend their colours. You'll be looking at soil and rocks in a new, exciting way after this class!

Flow to Slow Yoga

Join us for an energizing, relaxing yoga practice. The first portion of class moves you through a gentle flow of active, dynamic postures that wake up your muscles and get blood flowing. We will then wind down to a slower pace, holding posture to help nourish your joints, relax your mind and release tension. Appropriate for beginners or experienced students looking for a new approach to their practice. Bring a yoga mat and a towel or light blanket. Some props are available to borrow but you are welcome to bring your own. Class takes place in the beautiful VanDusen Guides Classroom with garden views.

Mondays, Sep 10 - Nov 26 (10 classes, no class Oct 8 & Nov 12) 10:15 - 11:30 am
Instructor: Timothy Martin

Brain and Body Workout for Boomers and Beyond

This class, designed by Kinesiologists and Occupational Therapists, is an evidence-based program to improve both physical and brain conditioning. The first half of the class combines physical conditioning exercises (cardiovascular, balance, strength, coordination) with rhythm, creativity, memory, kinesthetic learning, and cognitive play. The second half includes exercises for flexibility, core, posture, followed by visualization, meditation, and deep relaxation. Participants describe this class as “fun”, “exciting”, “refreshing” and “soothing”.

Tuesdays, Sep 11 - Nov 27 (10 classes, no class Nov 13 & 20), 10:30 - 11:30 am
Instructor: Love Your Age Fitness

Better Balance Workout for Seniors

This is a gentle class for all levels, focused on balance and mobility for fitness and for preventing falls. Exercises can be done seated or standing, and participants will increase their functional strength and mobility, core stability, lower body strength, and improve their balance.

Wednesdays, Sep 12 - Nov 28 (11 classes, no class Nov 14) 12:00 - 12:45 pm
Instructor: Love Your Age Fitness

New! Chair Yoga for Mobility

Chair yoga is a gentle form of yoga that is practiced sitting on a chair, or standing using a chair for support. This style of yoga is an excellent option for people that have trouble sitting on the floor or getting up and down during a mat yoga class. Experience the relaxing benefits of mindful movement, deep breathing and guided meditations. Please wear layers and comfortable clothing that allow for unrestricted movement. Class takes place in the beautiful VanDusen Guides Classroom with garden views.

Mondays, Sep 24 - Nov 26 (8 classes, no class Oct 8 & Nov 12) 2:00 - 3:00 pm
Instructor: Nadine Spitteler
